INDEX KEY

This Centennial edition is in four sections. However, they are not identified as one, two, three, etc. Because we use a system of section number, page and column number, we find it necessary to designate a number to each section and identified as follows:

Section One Main feature is an account written by Edmund Booth in 1872

Section Two Small map of Iowa 100 years ago

Section Three Full page display and advertisement of Jones County Fair

Section Four Among many other things is a small picture of the old Anamosa Fair Grounds , which had recently been sold to the Hybrid Corn Company

Each section has 8 pages. In some instances there may be more than one reference to a name in a column or a story. Every entry in the index has 3 numbers:

1st digit- Section
2nd digit- Page
3rd digit- Column
